The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning
That God would call your name In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same

*It broke our hearts to lose you You did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home*

*You left us beautiful memories
Your love is still our guide
And although we cannot see you You're always by our side*

Our family chain is broken And nothing seems the same But as God calls us one by one The chain will link again

The Life Of
Dayvion Kahari Burt
“POE”

Dayvion Kahari Burt was born on March 29, 2006 in Columbus, Ohio to his very proud parents Daquan Conley and Bonnie Burt. As a baby Dayvion was given the nickname “Poe”. This nickname will follow him for the rest of his life.

Poe attended Linden-McKinley High School. Poe was very intelligent and excelled in mathematics. Poe had a great sense of humor and loved spending time with his family and friends. Poe was very talented. He loved to rap, and he also loved watching his brothers perform.

Poe accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at a very young age and attended church with his family.

Dayvion “Poe” Burt departed this life on February 10, 2021.

Poe leaves to cherish his memory, loving mother, Bonnie Burt; devoted father, Daquan Conley; siblings, Da'ven Burt, George Burt, Lavell Conley, Ja'vell Conley, Diamond Williams, and MiAngel Floyd; grandmothers, Myra Manley and Alonzetta Conley; grandfathers, Kevin (Velma) Burt and Alonzo Watson; great-grandmother, Lucinda Burt; aunts, Lucinda Conley, Kizzy Conley, Chimere Conley, Tracey Conley, Ashley Conley, and Sherry (Reginald) Lee-Cleveland; uncles, Alonzo Watson, Dennis Archibald, and Clarence (Tonia) Archibald III; nephews, King Burt, Cash Preston, Davon Burt, Jr.; niece, GiGi Burt; and a host of great-aunts, great-uncles, cousins, relatives and friends.

Poe is sorely missed by his family, friends, and everyone who had the opportunity to know him.

Just Think of Him

God's Lent Child

*I'll lend you for a little while a child of mine, God said,
For you to love the while he lives, and mourn for when he's dead.
It may be six or seven years, or forty two or three,
But will you, 'til I call him back, take care of him for me?
He'll bring his charms to gladden you. And should his stay be brief, You'll always have your memories as solace in your grief.
I cannot promise he will stay, since all from earth return,
But there are lessons taught below I want this child to learn.
I've looked this whole world over in my search for teachers true,
And from the folk that crowd life's lane, I have chosen you.
Now will you give him all your love and not think the labour vain, Nor hate me when I come to take this lent child back again.
I fancy that I heard them say, 'Dear God Thy will be done',
For all the joys this child will bring, the risk of grief we'll run.*

*We will shelter him with tenderness, we'll love him while we may,
And for all the happiness we've ever known, we'll ever grateful stay.
But should the angels call him much sooner than we'd planned, We will brace the bitter grief that comes and try to understand.*

Don't think of him as gone away his journey's just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.
