Family and Friends

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card
or sat quietly in a chair,
Perhaps you sent a funeral spray,
if so we saw it there,
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words
that any friend could say,
Perhaps you were not there at all,
just prayed and thought of us that day
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We Thank You!*

Obituary

John Fitzgerald Drummond, 59, gained his wings on February 1, 2023. John was born on January 12, 1964, to Pauline Marie Drummond and Johnny (Buddy) Meek in Columbus, Ohio.

He received his education in Dayton, Ohio and graduated from Dayton Dunbar High School.

Known in his circles as "Unko Drum", John would go on to travel across the country with a career in music and production. Eventually John's life would become committed to activism becoming a motivational speaker and, Chief of Staff for New Order National Human Rights Organization, fighting for multiple causes alongside his long-time friend and President, Gerald E. Rose.

John lived a Courageous Life!

John Drummond is preceded in death by his foster parents; Marie and John Pilgrim, father; Johnny Meek, brother; Emanuel "Manny" Drummond, sister; Sylvia Betts-Drummond, and nephews; Dante Crayton and Fred Thomas Jr.

John leaves to cherish his memories, mother; Pauline Drummond, sister; Anita Thomas-Drummond, brother; Jamil Drummond, sister in-law; Dominique Pace-Drummond, loving and devoted friend; Barbara Branigan, aunt & cousin Monique & Hasani Deziaueto (California), best friend; Bob Mitchell (Dayton, Ohio), friend; Gearld E. Rose and the whole New Order Family, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, friends and loved ones.

Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God, Believe also in me. My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you.
