

Acknowledgement

The family of Paris Raeshannon Royal wishes to express with sincere appreciation all acts of kindness that have been shown to them during their time of bereavement. Perhaps you sent flowers, a card, whispered a soft prayer, lent a listening ear, we are so grateful.

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me."
Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.
Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.
Remember all, how I truly was blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small.
Go on with your life, don't worry about falls.
I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.
Until the day comes we're together again.

Obituary

Paris Raeshannon Royal was born to Calvin Royal III and Charlie Cooper February 18, 1996.

Paris was called home on January 15, 2023. Paris attended Columbus International High School. He was very intelligent and smart. He received good grades (when he wanted to). He was a very intellectual person who loved to debate with people about the way he felt.

Paris was an Avid reader. One of his favorite books was "Out Witting the Devil" by Napoleon Hill. Was also an aspiring rapper. He wrote over 50 songs.

Paris loved spending time with his family and a was protector over them. He also enjoyed spending time with his homies. He was a genuine and caring person with a big heart and was helpful when it was possible.

Paris was a proud Rastafarian and y'all know he loved his hair. He was loved by many because of his uplifted spirit, positive energy and mind set.

Paris leaves to cherish his memory his father; Calvin (Nicole) Royal III, mother; Charlee (Robert) Cooper, grandparents; Calvin and Betty Royal, sisters; Abrianna Hardgrove, LaRae and LaNiya Jackson, aunts; Nicole (Aaron) Woods and Charmelle Royal, uncle; Leroy Kendrick, cousins; Sheneil, Chelsea and Jaelynn Royal, niece; Dior and nephew; Chance Hardgrove .

He was preceded in death by his grandparents; Margaret and Alonzo Stubs.
