The Cord

We are connected, my child and I,
by an invisible cord not seen by the eye.
It's not like the cord that connects us 'til birth
This cord can't been seen by any on Earth.
This cord does it's work right from the start.
It binds us together attached to my heart.
I know that it's there though no one can see
The invisible cord from my child to me.
The strength of this cord is hard to describe.
It can't be destroyed, it can't be denied.
It's stronger than any cord man could create.
It withstands the test, can hold any weight.
And though you are gone, though you're not here with me,
The cord is still there, but no one can see.
It pulls at my heart, I am bruised...I am sore,
But this cord is my lifeline as never before.
I am thankful that God connects us this way
A mother and child, death can't take it away!

The Obituary

Nikolas Cowans Jr. was born August 30th, 2001, to Nickolas Cowans Sr. and Tamara Short in Columbus, Ohio. He was educated in Columbus, attending Early College Academy.

Nicks family meant the world to him and there was not anything he would not do for his family. Nick's mom would jokingly say, "Nick could meet a friend in the desert". He loved all types of animals, insects, you name it.

He was preceded in death by his Grandmother, Linda Cowans. He leaves to cherish his memories, his Parents, Grandparents, Sister, De'Essence, Brother, Sylvion Cowans and a host of Uncles, Aunts, Cousins, and Friends.

Nick will be truly missed by all who had the pleasure of loving and knowing him.

*I am the resurrection and the life: He that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live.
And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.*
