In Loving Memory Shawn Wayne Mooney

Dad, Now That We're Older...

From the time that we were small,
We looked up to you.
And now that we've grown up,
You're the hero, we never outgrew.

From sitting atop giant shoulders,
To see above the crowd.
To swinging from strong arms,
And hanging upside down.

To running alongside our bikes,
To teaching strength when we would fall.
To insisting we work hard in school,
To loving us through it all.

Growing up is often hard,
Dad, your presence lit our way.
You led us along life's path,
Beside us all the way.

We want to say we love you,
For all the years together we have had.
In our hearts you are our hero,
All our life you are our Dad.
