Light after Dark

A poem by Stephanie Satterwhite

*As I sat by my window, looking out at the grey sky,
tears rolled down my cheeks,
as it's finally time to say goodbye.*

Goodbye to a friend who was always there.

Goodbye to family who always showed care.

Someone whom I turn to, I don't know how to move on.

Someone whom I relate to, but now you're gone.

But then a bird came and sat by my window.

The sun starts shining and evaporated my sorrow.

Good memories came to wash away my sadness.

Mend my heart and fill it with gladness.

*I wipe my tears away and now that you're gone
I can't give up now I have to move on.*

The Obituary

Stephanie Elaine Satterwhite, age 50, passed away to be with her family in Heaven on Saturday, April 17, 2021. She was born on April 21, 1970 in Columbus, Ohio.

Stephanie was educated in Columbus City Schools and a graduate of Walnut Ridge High School. Stephanie worked various jobs in her life and finally settled in with Fed Ex, where she had been employed for over 10 years. Stephanie had no children but loved and treasured her God Daughter Mackayla and all of her nieces and nephews.

Stephanie will be sorely missed. She is survived by her Sister, Camille Satterwhite (Richard), Half-Sister, Darlena (Doug) Thompson, Half-Brother, Dale (Kim) Satterwhite, two Nieces, Averi Satterwhite, and Zayla Younger, and three Nephews, Timothy Thompson, Colbert Thompson, and Rylan Younger.

Her Angels on earth: Kevin Gamble (and family) and Gerri Boone (and family), along with a host of more family and friends. She is preceded in death by father, William R. Satterwhite, mother, Joan C. Satterwhite, and brother, Jason A. Satterwhite.

Stephanie will be missed for her sense of humor and compassion for others. She always made light of everything no matter the circumstances and would do anything for others; even if she didn't have it. She was the most loyal Friend, Aunt, and Sister a person could have. She will always be loved.
