My Golden Angel Celestine

A golden heart stopped beating, hardworking hands at rest, it broke our hearts to see you go.

They say that memories are golden, well that may be true. We never wanted memories we only wanted you, your life was love and labor, your love for your family true, you did your best for all of us we will always remember you.

We sat beside your bedside, our hearts were crushed and sore, we did our duties till the end till we couldn't do no more. In tears we watched you sinking we watched you fade away, and though our hearts were breaking we knew you could not stay, our lips cannot speak how we love you, our hearts cannot tell what to say, but God only knows how we miss you, in our heart, and home that is lonely.
