

Expressions of Gratitude

The family of Barbara Wilkins wish to thank everyone for your calls, calls and condolences, your prayers and your presence during this time. We pray that God continue to keep and bless each and every one of you.

Pallbearers

Family and Friends

God saw you getting tired
and a cure was not to be;

So He put his arms around you
and whispered,

“Come with Me.”

With tearful eyes we watched you suffer
and saw you fade away.

Although we LOVED YOU DEARLY
we could not make you stay.

A GOLDEN HEART stopped beating hard working hands at rest.

God broke our hearts to prove to us

He only takes the best!

Obituary

Barbara Mae Wilkins, a beloved mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and a cherished member of her community, passed away on May 20, 2023, in Mansfield, Ohio. Born on September 4, 1935, in Brooklyn, New York, she was the daughter of Maranda and Bennie Crews.

Barbara was a remarkable woman known for her passion for crafts and sewing. Barbara's spiritual journey began at Victory Temple Church of God in Christ in Brooklyn, where she was an active and devoted member. After moving to Mansfield, she continued her faithful service at Greater Mitchell Chapel AME Church, where her presence and dedication were deeply valued.

In addition to her parents, Barbara was preceded in death by her beloved son; Scott Kelly Wilkins, as well as her brothers; John Seymore, Randolph Moore, and Sipio Johnson. Although she will be dearly missed, her memory will forever live on in the hearts of those who loved her.

Left to cherish Barbara's memory are her loving son; Michael Wilkins, thirteen grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, and her sisters; Evangelist Nora Bean, Reverend Loretta Norris, and Roberta (Duane) Hill. She also leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends, all of whom were touched by her kindness, love, and warmth.

Barbara Mae Wilkins will forever be remembered for her artistic talents, culinary expertise, and her unwavering faith. She leaves behind a legacy of love, compassion, and joy that will continue to inspire all those who were fortunate enough to have known her. May her soul find eternal peace, and may her family and friends find solace in the cherished memories they shared with her.

I am the resurrection and the life: He that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live.
And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.
John 11:25-26
