Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent a flower piece, If so, we saw it there. Perhaps you said the kindest words, that any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us this day. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much, whatever the part.

Reflections of Life

Rickey LaDell Dale was born January 29, 1956, in Winnsboro, Louisiana, to the late Cliff and Mary Dale.

Rickey moved to San Francisco, California with his mother when he was just a young boy. As a young adult, Rickey relocated on his own to his permanent residence of Columbus, Ohio. It wasn't too long after arriving to this new city, that he would meet his lifelong partner and future wife, Julia "Judy" Dale. Rickey and Judy would raise their 2 daughters, Kimico "Kip" and Joy and remained married until his passing, a total of over 40 years.

Rickey's favorite things to do included fishing, cooking, watching sports, he loved his San Francisco 49ers, and listening to his oldies but goodies on full blast.

Rickey leaves to cherish his memory, devoted wife, Julia [Dunlap] Dale; daughters, Kimico Dale and Joy (Marbury) Norah; grandchildren, Jowaun T. Dale, Rayshawn T. Norah Jr., Niyana R.M. Norah, Douglas A. Patterson Jr., Jayshawn A.N. Norah, Dominic A. Patterson, and Dimitrius A. Patterson; sisters, Maria A. Dale, Alisa Newson, and Christina "Nina" Dale; cousin, Azeez Akbar; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Feel No Guilt in Laughter

*Feel no guilt in laughter, he'd know how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile that he is not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever; he would not want you to.
He'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.
So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.
Let memories surround you. A word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day,
That brings him back as clearly as though he were still here,
And fills you with the feeling that he is always near.
For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart
And he will live forever locked safely within your heart.*
