The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning
That God would call your name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home*

*You left us beautiful memories
Your love is still our guide
And although we cannot see you
You're always by our side*

*Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again*

Obituary

Frankie Webb, age 77, of Columbus, OH, passed away on October 10, 2022, after a long battle with cancer.

Frankie was the first of five children born to Vera and Simmi Sellers on October 29, 1944, in Six, W. Va. She received her formal education in W. VA. at Excelsior High School.

Frankie and her cousin Gloria moved to NY two years after graduation. It was there that she began her career at the New York Telephone Company. A job in which she would excel for more than thirty-five years.

In February 1968, Frankie married the late James (Jimmy) Webb, who preceded her in death in November 2013. To this union, three children were born: Tammy, Kenneth, and Ashley.

Frankie loved and cared for her family deeply. In any way that she could be of assistance, she wouldn't hesitate to do so. She also had a love for food. Especially sweets! She was a skilled (excellent) baker of cakes, something still talked about and fondly remembered by her friends and co-workers at the phone company today. However, she loved one thing almost as much as her family and friends: QVC! For those of us that know, let us share a laugh!

Frankie was preceded in death by her parents, Vera and Simmi Sellers, and sisters, Gladys Yarbrough, Jeanette Logan, and Yolanda Sellers.

Frankie leaves to cherish her memory children, Tammy (NY), Kenneth (OH), and Ashley (NY); grandchildren, Amaya and James Jr. (Ashley Palmer); sisters, Shirley (Roy) Jones and Ernestine (Thomas) Anderson; aunt, Carrie "Tootsie" Spraggins; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, and friends whom she loved dearly.

*Show me Your ways, O Lord; Teach me Your paths.
Lead me in Your truth and teach me,
For You are the God of my salvation; On You, I wait all day.*
