The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning
That God would call your name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same

It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home

You left us beautiful memories
Your love is still our guide
And although we cannot see you
You're always by our side

Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again

The Obituary

Michael Robert Walker "Lil Mike" was born in Columbus, Ohio on August 27, 1950 to the late Robert Walker and Shirley Smith.

Lil Mike loved sports. He was a huge Cleveland Browns fan also a big Ohio State Buckeyes fan. He was constantly on the go. He lived in Chicago until the "winds got to strong", California until the "earthquakes shook to much", and South Carolina a state "he loved", but Ohio was "HOME".

Lil Mike touched so many people's lives. He was always smiling and sharing his wisdom from things like how to do the ham bone, play "3 Card Molly", chess, ride a bike without training wheels and so many other things.

Though he faced a tough assignment with his cancer battle he still motivated himself and others with his old saying such as "Slow motion beats no motion" and "Do like the Hindu's do; the best you can do".

Michael leaves to cherish his memory, Brothers: Sean (Adrianne) Walker, William, Wesley, Howard (Karen) Walker, Carl Smith, Bobby Jones, and Leif (Venessa) Smith; Sisters: Felicia (POOH) Smith, Yvette, and Martha Smith; Special Folks: Griff, Baby James, James Williams, Sydney Williams, Izetta Brown and Neicce, Many nieces, nephews, cousins, family and friends.

Michael R. Walker...you are loved and will be truly missed by family and friends. There will never be anyone else like you.
