The Obituary

Mr. Kenneth (Kenny) Lewis Brown, Jr., son of Kenneth Lewis Brown, Sr. and Dawn Renee Wilson, was born on December 25, 1984. He gained his wings on December 13, 2023.

He married the love of his life, Deundra, on October 17, 2009. The union was blessed with two beautiful children.

Kenny was a very loving man that made a lasting impact on anyone that he met. He never met a stranger. He was a man of many words. He loved to talk, make jokes, cook, and watch his beloved Ohio State Buckeyes, and the Dallas Cowboys. When he wasn't watching the game, you could always find him on Saturday mornings coaching and cheering on his two children that he loved dearly. He never missed one of their games, despite how he was feeling that day. He was always willing to support any one in their time of need. He had a giant heart and a smile that would light up any room. He will be missed dearly.

Kenny was preceded in death by his uncle, Darryl Wilson, and cousin, Robert Brown.

He leaves to cherish his memories, his wife, Deundra; his sons, Jaiden and Kaleb Brown; mother, Dawn Wilson; father, Kenneth (Sharon) Brown; brothers, Anthony Wilson, Charles Brown, Sr., Terrell (Kelly) Howell; sisters, Keisha Brown, Taneka Brown, Taquela (Phil) Brown, Desitny Hoff; uncles, Kevin Wilson, Charles Wilson; aunt, Tanya Barber; grandmothers, Genevie Brown and Marlene Wilson; father-in-law, James (Sarah) Leonard; sister-in-law, Jasmine (Mickey) Jenkins; brother-in-law, Derrick Leonard; grandmother, Roberta Brager of (Sylacauga, Alabama); special nephews, Deontae Head, Jr., and Xavier Brown, and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Gone, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

Don't think of him as gone away
His journey's just begun,
Life holds so many facets
This earth is only one.
Just think of him as resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years.
Think how he must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away.
And think of him as living
In the hearts of those he touched
For nothing loved is ever lost
And he was loved so much.
