The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning
That God would call your name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same

It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home

You left us beautiful memories
Your love is still our guide
And although we cannot see you
You're always by our side

Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again

The Obituary

Karen L. Rogers

Karen L. Rogers age 70, affectionately called Candy by family and friends, was born on December 31, 1951 to Benny L. Rogers and Edwina (Belton) Rogers, in Columbus, Ohio. She went home to be with the Lord suddenly at home on Friday, September 30, 2022.

Candy went to 11th Avenue School which is now the site of CMHA and she attended Linden McKinley Sr. High School. Candy grew up in Windsor Terrace which is now Rosewind. Rosewind is Windsor with an "E" added. She was proud of this because to her Windsor Terrace is an important part of the South Linden area that should not be lost in the name change.

Candy was a very active member of the Windsor Terrace and Rosewind Resident Councils. She actively ran the free Toys for Christmas program, the After School program for the children in the neighborhood, National Night Out and other various programs for the community. Candy worked as an AmeriCorps Vista Member through the City of Columbus where Rosewind was her site to work. She also was very instrumental in working with CMHA, the City of Columbus and the Mayor's office with the HOPEVI program which helped with the funds to demolish Windsor Terrace Apartments and rebuild new housing which is now Rosewind today.

Candy was also business minded; she ran her own home childcare center, along with a summer time Candy store for the kids in the neighborhood. The children were able to purchase candy, snack cakes, chips, pop etc. at a discounted price. She used the money from the candy store to take her children and grandchildren to the Ohio State Fair. Though Candy liked the work she did in the community she loved her family most. She was always there for her children. The one job she took seriously was being a grandmother. Her oldest grandson Mark could not say grandma as a toddler, he said "Donnol" and it stuck. She would not allow anyone to call her grandma because she would proudly say that is not my name, my name is Donnol. Every grandchild, niece, nephew and great-grandchild called her Donnol. She made sure she was the best Donnol ever. She seen or talked with her children and grandchildren every day. If she did not hear from them she was calling around to see if everything was ok with her "Babies" it did not matter that some of her grandchildren were adults she would call the parents to ask if they heard from her grandchild.

Candy was preceded in death by her father Benny L. Rogers, mother Edwina (Belton) Rogers, brothers Anthony "Tony" Rogers, Michael Rogers & Jerald Rogers, Sister Lillian Rogers and Niece LiTasha Streeter.

Candy's precious memories live on in the hearts of her 3 son's Mark Rogers, Kevin Moore and Shaun Rogers; Sister Laveda Rogers; Aunt Carol Belton; 11 Grandchildren Mark Rogers Jr., Salim Rogers, N'Shea Manning, Massiah Brown, Jaylin Lane, Niyah (Seiquan) Smith, Emmanuel Bond, Kavonna Moore, Gabriel Moore, Omari Broussard and Ja'Mesha Wheeler; 9 Great-Grandchildren Mar'Kalen Rogers, Roman Rogers, Salim Rogers Jr., Ja'ire Brown, Maliik Brown, Nova Smith, Kason Smith, Jabriel Lane and Royalty White; Special daughters Kimberly Smith and Nolita Manning along with a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and many friends.

I Am Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free*
