The Obituary

Reynard “Bink” Reed was born on July 15, 1976, in Columbus, Ohio. He was 46 years old at the time of his passing.

Reynard loved music, was a true comedian, funny and kindhearted. He was very articulate, charismatic, and passionate about his family and friends. When Bink was your friend, he was your friend.

Bink had his own language. He could be telling you a story and have you laughing with tears in your eyes. Some of his favorite slogans were “That’s a Digler”, “Siperton” and “Slippery one”. If you knew Bink you either loved him or you hated him.

Reynard is preceded in death by his mother Bernita “Bunchie” Briggs.

Reynard is survived by his two daughters, Sharaye Reed, Rayonna Reed; brother, Michael Reed and a host of other family and friends that loved and cherished him.

Bink will forever be missed.
