Obituary

Ragellia Jones affectionately known as Kelly, was born May 28, 1975 to Rogellio "Rocky" Jones and Carrie Ann Dixon. She was a boisterous and outgoing child, adventurous and fearless from the start. Kelly attended Columbus Public Schools and enjoyed reading and learning new things. She was a self taught mechanic and enjoyed working beside her life partner Leland. Kelly enjoyed fishing. She also enjoyed learning new recipes and was most recently committed to learning to cooking her grandmothers special dish Sotanghon.

Kelly is preceeded in death by her mother, Carrie Ann Dixon and her brother, Ronald Harris, her grandmother Salustiana Loangco Jones, and her Uncle Donato Jones. We know they will welcome her into heaven with hugs and kisses of love. They will cover her with and make a special place just for her amongst the clouds. She is in good company.

Kelly will be missed and cherished by her loving children, Keri Janel Marie Jones, Kierra Jones, La'Deral Hathman, Mohammad Borden, Ebony Destiny Jones and Octayvin Jones. To know Kelly was to know that she loved her children with all of her heart. She valued family time and togetherness. She looked forward to every holiday because it was a chance to get together, cook, listen to music and act crazy with her kids. They say you can tell a lot about a woman by how she raises her kids and her legacy will be togetherness and love, which she instilled in them. Kelly strove to keep her tribe together. It was a driving force in her life. She would be extremely proud of how well her children came together to handle the business of giving her a most perfect farewell.

I am the resurrection and the life: He that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live. And whoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.
