Terica (Sweetpea) Shawntell Brown finished life's race on Saturday, October 9, 2021. Born November 7, 1973, in Mansfield, OH, to the late Darlene Brown and Grady Sambo Coffee, Sweetpea lived life to the fullest in the company of family and friends. She was known for showcasing her culinary skills, decorating and hosting parties to celebrate any occasion. In addition, Sweetpea loved listening to music, dancing, and reading books and magazines on cooking and decorating. In 2019, she became an author and shared her testimony in an anthology, “Walking in Divine Favor”.

Sweetpea spent her childhood playing sports. She displayed great athleticism in football, being the first female player in the City of Mansfield, volleyball, softball and track, where she held schoolwide record titles in the shot put, 100-meter dash and the 4×100 relay. In 1989, Sweetpea was a part of the first class of students to take cosmetology after its reopening at Raemelton School. In 1991, she graduated from Mansfield Senior High School. However, before her courageous health battle ended her studies, she attended North Central Technical College in Mansfield and later transferring to Columbus State Community College in Columbus, OH.

Raised in the church, Sweetpea confessed her faith at Alpha & Omega COGIC under the tutelage of the late Elder Henry L. Washington. Setting her spiritual foundation, she remained a member until the pastor's retirement.

Sweetpea was preceded in death by her parents and daughter, Victoria Terica Shawntell Brown. She will be deeply missed by her son, Eric Deion Crutcher, with whom she shared a permanent bond and Antwan J. Horston, a nephew in whom she raised as her own.

Sweetpea also leaves to cherish her memory, second mother, Lillie Coffee; brothers, Michael Lee Coffee and Jamel Coffee, both of Mansfield; sisters, Nicole (Antwan) Horston of Columbus, OH; Priscilla (Isha) and Monique (Pappy) Coffee, both of Mansfield and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives and friends including special friend, Darnell Davis of Pensacola, FL and former husband, Jeffrey Taylor of Columbus, OH. In addition, Sweetpea was well-loved by so many more people, too numerous to list but treasured.
