The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning
That God would call your name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same

It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home

You left us beautiful memories
Your love is still our guide
And although we cannot see you
You're always by our side

Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again

The Obituary

Wayne Everette "SacChaser" Harding, age 40, was called home on April 21, 2021 at his home. Wayne was born on October 19, 1980 in Columbus, Ohio to parents, Tina Cooper and Wayne Harding. He grew up here in Columbus, OH where he received his GED and later on attended culinary school and became a Chef.

Wayne was a devoted Father, Son, Brother, Uncle, Nephew and Grandfather who loved being around family and friends. He loved the Ohio State Buckeyes, the kids and his love for dogs was passionate and real. He had a way of making you feel like family even if it was his first time meeting you. There was no such thing as a "stranger" to him but an opportunity to get someone to love him haha. He was a retired member of Columbus Youngbloods Motorcycle Club for 20+ years. He loved motorcycles and just partying in general. If were being honest he was the life of the party! His heart was made of pure gold and he was loved by so many people. He will truly be missed!

Wayne was preceded in death by his grandmother, Katie Abbott; uncle, Eldridge Chisolm; and nephew, Deyamonte Harding.

Wayne leaves to cherish his memories his wife, Bonita Harding; daughters, Martina Patterson, Mariah Patterson, and Sy'airra Cato; sons, Dashawn Harding, Jhari and Quentin Wagoner; grandchildren, TyQuan Harding and Dashawn Harding Jr.; loving mother, Tina (Kenny Clark) Cooper; father Wayne Harding; sister, Eva Aduma; brothers, Lewis Harding and Antonio Harding; niece, Shmerea Harding; nephew, Domanic Harding; aunt, Aundie McGhee; cousins, Kiana McGhee, Keith Woods, and Leslie Carter; great grandmother, Eva Ragland; brother-in-law, Felix Aduma; girlfriend, Dyannna Demeritt; and a host of other relatives and friends.

*I am the resurrection and the life: He that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live.
And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.*
