

Acknowledgement

The family of Maya Robinson would like to express our sincere gratitude for all your love and support during our time of grief. Maybe you sent a card or flowers, whispered a prayer, or just kept us in your thoughts, no act of kindness or solace has gone unnoticed. Maya was vibrant and so very loved and we thank you for celebrating her life with us.

*Don't grieve for me now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good times, good friends, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all to brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

The Obituary

Maya Monique Robinson blessed us all with her arrival August 25, 1978. She was a fiercely loyal daughter, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. After a lengthy battle, she peacefully entered eternal rest November 27th, 2021, at age 43.

After graduating from high school, Maya channeled her heart-to-help within the healthcare community as a phlebotomist and nursing professional. She loved her family. She prided herself as the "Favorite Auntie", the "Big Sister", and protector of those close to her. She could always be found with a book in her hand, had a passion for shopping, collecting crystals, traveling, and was the life of any party. Those that knew Maya best would tell you that she marched to the beat of her own drum and lived life on her terms.

Maya leaves behind children Jaymi and Jaylen Robinson; grandson, Jeremiah Robinson; parents, Willie Alexander, April Bond, Faith Alexander; grandparents, John Robinson Sr., Ella "Nan" Weldon, Charles Minter, and Reverend Luther Morris; siblings, Melvin, Erice, Nathaniel, Curtis, Diamond, Malcolm, Ashley, and Nefertari; special cousins, Caprece Henderson and LaTana Heglar; 11 nieces, 6 nephews, a goddaughter, godson, and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins. She is preceded in death by great-grandmother, Mary Hale; grandparents, Nathaniel and Helen Alexander and Antoinette Morris; aunts, Nelly Chaffin and Frances Henderson; cousin, Ebony Christian; and best friends, Donna Daniels and Buddy.

You made a difference. You are loved. You are missed.

"You may not control all the events that happen to you, but you can decide not to be reduced by them"
-Maya Angelou
