The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning
That God would call your name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same

It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home

You left us beautiful memories
Your love is still our guide
And although we cannot see you
You're always by our side

Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again

Don't Worry

Don't worry about me, loved ones
About my sorrows nor my pains
There was a chariot sitting and waiting for me
It was marked in Jesus' name

Don't try to understand the reason it happened
It might entangle the mind
Believe that God is still in control
And my home going is divine

I know it's hard to understand
How such a thing could be
Darkness sometimes can create a light
All of us need to see

Trust in God with all your heart
He will help you to make it through
Old things in your life will pass away
And all things He'll make new

Obituary

Terrance, affectionately known as "Tank" was born to Joan Jewell and William P. Garner on September 1, 1976 at Ohio State University Medical Center in Columbus, Ohio. As a young child, he attended Burnside Missionary Baptist Church and Vacation Bible School. He attended Brookhaven High School and later went on to receive his General Education Diploma from the Ohio Department of Education.

During his early adulthood, Terrance went on to become a successful entrepreneur owning Jewell Trucking Company. He was a member of True Love Ministries. While being a son, father, and good friend, he found time to enjoy life by traveling, riding his motorcycle, playing chess, and socializing with friends and family. He enjoyed attending get togethers, however, you could always count on him being tardy for the party! He was loving and caring and enjoyed making others happy. He was always willing to lend a hand or be there for friends and family.

We will miss Terrance's playful personality, bright joyous smile, contagious laugh, and distinctive raspy voice. We will forever cherish the footprints and memories that he left in our heart.

Terrance is preceded in death by his grandparents, Robert and Ruby Jackson, Sr., and Carrie O. Garner; uncle, LaValle Garner; aunt, Doris Donald; brothers, William Pierre Garner and Joseph C. Jewell, Jr.; sister, Garthene "Sherre" Council; son, Terrance D. Jewell II; nephew, Joseph C. Jewell III; and cousins, Cezaray Garner, Carlos Garner, Curtis Martin, Sade Carrie Garner, and Keith Williams Jr.

Terrance is survived by his loving and devoted parents, Joan (Joseph, C, Sr) Jewell, and William Pierre Garner; brothers, Marchese Dotson and Antoine Dotson; children, Terrionna (Donnie) Brickerson, Ayana Hart-Hudson, Madison Bowers, and Mekhi Jewell; grandchildren: Jayonna, Lea, Dalila, and Kyra Brickerson, and Tyshawn Jewell; special mentions of the ones he loved as his own, Dasjah Wells, and Brooklynn Gunnell; great aunt, Ollie Bell Milliner of Dayton, OH; uncles, Jerrel Jewell, Terry Jewell, Keith Williams, Robert (Jada) Jackson, Jr., Andre (Frankie Lynn) Garner of Atlanta, GA, and Stephen Garner; aunts, Diana (Terence) Jewell- Hudson, Wyuca Bradham of Stockbridge GA, Collette Garner, Alyce Fay Garner of Atlanta, GA, many nieces, nephews, cousins and friends, including special cousins, Nikki Norris, Kushan Norris, Tia Johnson, Steven Moorehead, Shareef Jewell, Drelle Jewell, Curtis (Shaneata) Garner, Shalena Zeigler, and Patty Taylor-Watkins; and God sister, Arrica Scarver; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Terrance will truly be missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing and loving him.
