

Acknowledgement

The Family would like to thank you for your kindness in this hour of bereavement; whether you sent a card or flowers, spoke comforting words, lent a shoulder, whispered a prayer or simply kept us in your thoughts, we appreciate it and it has not gone unnoticed.

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning
That God would call your name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home*

*You left us beautiful memories
Your love is still our guide
And although we cannot see you
You're always by our side*

*Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again*

The Obituary

Dolores Hite departed her loving family on October 11th, 2021. Dolores was born in Brooklyn New York on November 11th, 1961 to Gwendolyn and Jessie Hite. Dolores was mother to Shamain Notoma, Linda Burton, Jaymel Hite, Devine Hite, and Sharon Romero. She raised her children with love and devotion in Staten Island with her husband William Jones.

As a Homemaker, Dolores was known for being the heartbeat of the home. She enjoyed hanging with her friends and family; any time she could laugh, dance, cook and eat good food was a good time. She loved BINGO!!, weekends in Atlantic city, sports, and traveling. She was most proud of being a mom, grandmother, and aunt. Dolores had a big personality, she enjoyed being around people, her stories and laughter will truly be missed by her family, but will remain forever in our hearts

Dolores is survived by her Children Shamain (Ove, Spouse), Linda (John, Spouse), Jaymel, and Sharon her grandchildren Ishallar, Dylan Daunte, Jahmel, Brea, Jayla, and John Jr; and a host of nieces and nephews.

Aside from the children she doted on, Dolores is survived by her siblings, Justina Hite, Sharon Hite, and Linwood Clanton. She was preceded in death by Denise Hite and Raymond Clanton Jr.

Proverbs 31:28-29 - Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her. Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all!!!!

May Her Memory Be for a Blessing.
