God saw you getting tired
and a cure was not to be;
So He put his arms around you
and whispered,
"Come with Me."
With tearful eyes we watched you suffer
and saw you fade away.
Although we LOVED YOU DEARLY
we could not make you stay.
A GOLDEN HEART stopped beating hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best!

Obituary

Gladys Davis was born on June 14, 1923 to Elease Nelson and Charles Lane in Gaines, Florida.

United in Holy Matrimony to the late William Davis and from that union Calvin, Carolyn, Bernardine, William and Sandra were born.

Gladys found love again and married the late Louis Wicker, from that union was born Gino, Cheno and Anthony. She was a loving and devoted mother. With her deep understanding of life, people loved being around her for her wisdom and strength. She was baptized at an early age and gave her life to Christ.

As children we loved to listen to the stories about when she was a child living with her great grandparents and the adventures with her pet pig and rooster. Ordinary trips to the park and walks to the river as a family were always an adventure with mom.

Gladys had a sixth-grade education but was well read and encouraged and inspired her children to read. She was a wise, strong and determined woman who loved her mustard seed faith.

In spite of trials and tribulations, she enjoyed life. She enjoyed jazz and gospel music and dance. Loved to laugh, high spirited, peaceful, delightful and funny, being content and humble throughout her life.

Preceded in death by mother Elease Nelson; father Charles Lane; late husband's William Davis and Louis Wicker; sons Calvin Davis, William Davis, Gino Wicker and Anthony Davis.

She is survived by children Carolyn (John) Radney, Bernardine Farrar, Sandra (Michael) Neal, and Cheno Wicker; host of grandchildren (16), great grandchildren (29) and great-great grandchildren (8). Also, other hosts of family and friends.
