The family is extremely grateful for all acts of kindness displayed during this difficult time. Whether you sent a card or flowers; spoke comforting words; lent a shoulder; whispered a prayer; or simply kept us in your thoughts it has not gone unnoticed.

Rich In Soul

Written by Micah S

You are as Rich as your name	I know you can get thru this
You better believe it	So I'm here with this writing
Open those eyes a little more	So lil bro
And you should be able to see it	I'll have you know
I know things have been hard	God really loves you
Probably the toughest	And it shows
you've ever known	When things seem slow
But with greatness	Just let it flow comes a little struggle	Give it to God and let it go
And the fight is what's shown	He has all the power to multiply
I can only imagine	and make it grow
How you really must feel	Just know I love you everyday
Asking God everyday	I know you're strong in every way
Is this really for real	What you're going through
Well I just came to remind you	you don't gotta say
That you're still rich the great	But let's make a promise here today
No matter what you're going thru	A promise to keep ya head up
Or the time date or place	And talk to God as much as you can
God made you real unique	I promise on everything
Please don't ever forget	if you keep some faith
What you've been thru	He will give you the power to stand don't define you	You got this lil bro
So live with no regrets	I know that you can do it
We need you to get better	It's only a matter of time
I know you're tired but keep fighting	But he will help you through this

The Obituary

Richard Earl Brown, III was born on October 11, 2001, in Columbus, OH to Darshika Sandridge and Richard Brown, II. Richard was an inquisitive child from the beginning and always kept his mother and father on their toes. Richard was very family oriented and spending time amongst family brought him great joy.

Richard had a love for spoken word, arts, and music. He talked about his dreams and aspirations of becoming a veterinarian. Many would describe Richard as, "the wild child", "stubborn", "sensitive", "brave", "loving", "funny", or "outgoing". Richard loved to rap, sing, dance, picking with his nieces and nephew, and finding small tasks to help around his home.

Richard is preceded in death by his grandmother, Sherri Brown; grandfather, Donald Sandrige; and Uncle Santana Brewer. Richard will be lovingly remembered by his mother, Darshika Sandridge; father, Richard (Jaronna) Brown, III; sisters, I'Shala (Charles) Reynolds, Lotisha McCardell, Ashaina, and Amiya Brown; brothers, Justin Hemphill, and Javion Brown; nieces, Nayleah, Cassidy, Mi'Raya, Journee, and Joy; nephew, Carter; and a host of other family and friends.

Richard will be truly missed by all those who had the privilege of knowing and loving him.
