BROTHER

I miss your voice. I miss your smile. I miss your charm. Since you left here they say time make it better. In time I see you later. We be together later. A long time for ever when I leave here We be together later. I think of you often, since you left here. The day I can't take it, I know I will make it. I know I will make it with Jesus and remember it will help us through it. I know for sure it a great celebration. I know Jesus was waiting when you left here.

Obituary

Larry James Brihm Jr. was born March 21, 1970 in Columbus, Ohio. He departed this life on January 14, 2021.

Larry received his education through Columbus public schools, graduate of south high school.

Larry James Brihm Jr, aka Jabo, was a loving father, son, brother, uncle, and grandfather. He worked as a security guard dedicated to protecting his family and others.

Larry was outgoing with a sense of style! Larry was passionate about football (his favorite NFL team was the Dallas Cowboys) he loved laughing, being with his family, having fun with friends and mentoring.

Larry grew up on the southside in the Lincoln park area; where he enjoyed swimming at Lincoln park pool, he was dedicated to the community as a member of the mega boys and Naptown Riders MCS, his favorite colors were red and black.

Larry loved to coach little league football with his father Larry Sr (president of Midwest Bear Cats). A dedicated brother to the end, Jaboo was a member of the Naptown Riders MCS. Larry will be forever remembered for his love and compassion as great father and protector.

Larry is preceded in death by sister, Betty Brihm

Larry is survived by children, Larry Sullivan, Latoya Brihm-Christian, Lorenzo Brihm, Demetrius Brihm, Larita Brihm, Lanita Brihm, Phillip Brihm, and Latasha Gresham; parents Larry James (Cat E. Banks) Brihm Sr and Vivian Lee Watkins; siblings, Tina Pouye, Derrick Brihm, Ebony Brihm, Ronnie Brihm, Aleesha Brihm, Cameron Brihm, Terrence Brihm, Shalontaye Bollers, Marcus Richardson, John Collins, Markie Alexander, Charlie Alexander, and Jimmie Tatum; special lady, Racquel Yarbrough; and a host of nieces and nephews.
