“If You Could See Me Now”

*If you could see me now you wouldn't shed a tear, though you may not understand why I'm no longer there.
Remember my spirit that is the “Real” me, because I'm still very much alive, I've just been set free... If you could only see! I have beheld Our Father's face; I've touched my Savior's hands.*

All of Heaven's Angels rejoiced as I entered the promised land, beyond the gates of Pearl. I've walked on the Golden Street, I've touched the walls of Jasper and dipped my foot in the Crystal Sea, the beauty is beyond words and nothing could compare. I've seen your mansion and someday I'll meet you there.

“If you could see me now.”

Obituary

Vivian Spencer was born in Columbus, Ohio on December 20, 1950, to Beotis Crowder Sr. and Christine Crowder. She was the fifth child of seven siblings. She departed this life unexpectedly on Sunday, January 23, 2022.

She attended East High School where she received her high school diploma and she also attended Columbus Business University and received her diploma in office machines. She was employed by the Ohio Department of Developmental Disabilities for two years. She was also employed by many day-care centers. She volunteered for the Columbus Literacy Council and Women Against Rape. She was an entrepreneur and had several of her own businesses—Viv's Variety, Operation Emergency Fund and One Hand to Another "Changing People's Lives". As a young mother she would attend Bishop Yancey Baptist Church with her children. In 1976 she met Charlie H. Spencer and they married in 1981.

Vivian loved to talk and talk and talk some more (Smile). Dance, sing and be with her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. She enjoyed watching Cowboy Western Movies, "In the Heat of the Night", and "Blue Bloods". She barely missed watching her Soap Opera's (Channel 10). She was a non-smoker, no illegal drug user, and a non-drinker her entire life. She always encouraging other people to do the same. Vivian always put GOD first in her life and would read the Bible with her children even when her children were grown.
