

Acknowledgement

The Mangum/Busby family would like to thank the sixth-floor staff of Grant Hospital, especially Nurse Rachelle for your kindness and tenderness you showed when caring for my son.

Thank you to everyone for your prayers and acts of kindness during this very emotional time.

As Mothers

When our children first Come into this world we cannot wait to hear or see their first inhale.

We feel so blessed.

As Mothers (some Mothers)

When our children leave this world we see or hear their last exhale

It hurts. It's hard but it's still a Blessing

A lot of words were spoken

A lot of tears we cried

But when Jesus said

Our Father is ready

It was time

We had to say

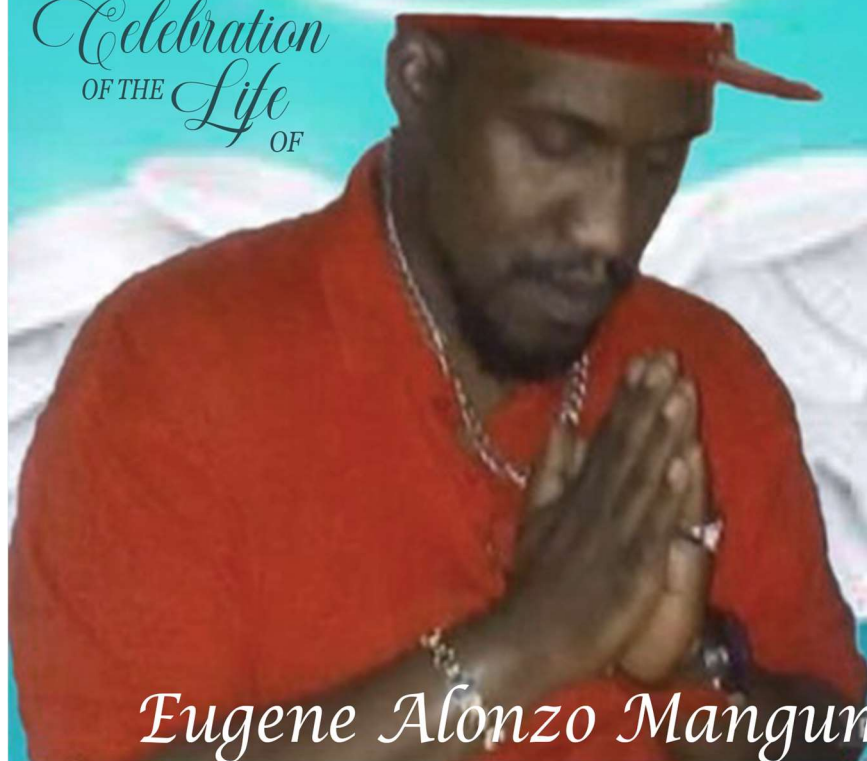

Good bye

Forever My son Eugene

Obituary

Eugene Alonzo "Jaws" Mangum was born on February 19, 1979 in Columbus, Ohio to Eugene Swanson and Teresa (Mangum) Busby.

Eugene was a unique and adventurous young man. His sister describes him as a firecracker. He talked about cooking a lot and loved to cook and share his recipes. If you knew him, he was funny. He loved his family and always wanted to bring everyone together. He faced many different challenges and obstacles in his life and overcame many. One thing for sure, Jaws was definitely a fighter.

Eugene is preceded in death by his father, Eugene Swanson; maternal grandparents, Julius Mangum Sr., and Grace Mangum; uncle, Julius Mangum, Jr.; aunt, Jacqueline Mangum; and brother, Roger L. Knight, Jr.

Eugene is survived by his mother, Teresa R. (Franklin) Busby; brothers, Edward (Holly) Pyfrom, Thomas Anderson, Jr., David Busby, and Franklin Busby, Jr.; sisters, Cassandra Anderson, and Cynthia Anderson; aunts, Valerie (Andre) Sullivan and Crystal (Kenneth) Joyce; Swanson family; and a host of other family members and friends.

Eugene will be missed by all those who had the privilege of knowing and loving him.
