

Acknowledgement

The Family of Jeremiah Hunter express our deepest appreciation for every visit, phone call, card and prayer that has come our way. We are so grateful for every expression of love that those near and far have sent our way. Please continue to keep us in your thoughts and prayers as we press on through this transition phase of life. May God bless and keep each of you, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord!

"Do not stand at my grave and weep.
I am not there; I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow.
I am the diamond glints on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain.
I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry;
I am not there; I did not die."

The Obituary

Pastor Jeremiah Hunter was born June 20, 1938 in Omaha, GA to the late Moses and Eula Lee Hunter. He passed away Friday, April 1, 2022 at Marion General Hospital, Marion, OH. After growing up in Omaha, Jeremiah attended Lumpkin High School and at the age of 17, Jeremiah moved to St. Petersburg, FL. It was there he joined New Jerusalem Baptist Church and later received his Certificate of Ordination in 1966.

In 1970 he moved to Ohio and later became a member of Valley Baptist Church, Wheatland, PA where he was blessed to serve as an Associate Minister until called to Pastor at 1st Baptist Church, Wellsville, OH. He was pastor there for four years before being called to Mt. Olive Baptist Church in Midland, PA where he served for 11 years. Jeremiah was then called to Mt. Sinai Institutional Baptist Church, Johnstown, PA until his retirement in 2013 and subsequent move to Bainbridge, GA to be closer to his last surviving sibling.

Over the years Jeremiah attended and graduated from several seminary programs including the American Baptist Theological Seminary in January 1983, where he received a Certificate in Christian Training and a Diploma in Theology in May 1984 from the same institution. Still in further pursuit of excellence in the study of the Word, he received a Bachelor of Theology in April, 1986 from the International Bible Institute and Seminary. While "Grandpa" loved to sit for hours reading, studying the bible for himself, his greater joy seemed to be preparing sermons and compiling lessons for his "students".

Even after moving to Ohio because of health reasons, he continued to compile and distribute lessons to those whom he had encountered over the years that shared his passion for learning the word. His final lesson was sent out only a couple days before his passing. But those who knew him were aware there was still another passion that was dear to him and that was--Sports.

While he would occasionally talk of playing baseball as a youngster saying how he loved playing baseball as a kid, he was an avid Pittsburgh Steelers and Pirates fan and really enjoyed watching the games --even the older games from years gone by. He would give his analysis of games, players, draft picks and so forth. Yes, he was quite knowledgeable regarding the dynamics of each of his favorite past times.

Jeremiah is survived by his wife, Thelma Hunter; Sister, Friendella (Thomas) Brenton; daughter, Vicki (Meaka) Ashley, Richwood, OH, sons, Marion (Ginger) Styles, Akron, OH, Timothy Hunter, Hilliard, OH; Grandsons Lorenzo (LaVerna) Styles, Andre' (Victoria) Ashley; granddaughter Marisia Styles, and Alexandria Styles; 7 grandchildren; Daughter from previous marriage, Angelia (Fernois) Hunter-Bradberry of St. Pete., FL; granddaughter Tiara Bradberry, grandsons Fernois Bradberry, Jr., Javaris (Ashley) Bradberry, Jeremiah Bradberry, and 10 great-grandchildren; a host of other nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends.

Jeremiah was preceded in death by his parents, brothers Charlie and Calvin Hunter, sisters, Barbara Bogan, Mildred Booker, and Floretha Hunter, four grandsons: Malcolm and Bryant Styles, Meaka Ashley, III and Maurice Stewart.
