

To My Daughter

On December 15, 1969, your father and I were blessed with a beautiful daughter. We love you but God loves you best. You brought so much joy and love to our family. We will miss you coming in the door saying, "hi mom, how are you doing?" and when you would see your father you would say "hi dad, how are you?"

You showed so much love for your family, parents, children, sister, brothers, grandchildren, and many nieces, nephew, and friends. We know there will be tears of sadness and tears of joy. You are an added flower in the garden of your family who will meet in heaven. We Love you Foya, as I called you. God love you unconditionally and so do we. You are just sleeping in the arms of God. Rest in peace and know you will forever be loved. Your memories are in our hearts and mind. You were blessed with many friends and even more people who loved by many. You will never be forgotten.

Thank you for showing so much love. The sorrow we feel now will be overcome with joy; with the many memories you left behind. God, please take the sting out of death. We will make it through with God all around us.
