God saw him getting tired,

*And a cure was not to be,
So, he put his arms around him and whispered,
"Come to me."*

*With tearful eyes we watched him suffer,
And saw him slowly fade away.
Although we loved him dearly,
We could not make him stay.
A Golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands put to rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.*

Obituary

Rondale Lamont Sullivan Sr., Age 51, Sunrise December 21, 1971 and Sunset September 30, 2023. He is proceeded in death by his parents, Father, Arthur Swanson and Mother, Anita Haynes, and his little brother, Paul Haynes Jr. He is survived by his fiancé and partner of 10 years, Angela Haynes. His children, Rondale Sullivan Jr., Jenny Sullivan, Ondae Sullivan, Dezmond (William) Howell, and Macie (Adam) Harlan. His grandchildren, Jamya, Ivy, Kyslie, and Jasper. Brothers and sisters, Chanita, Danielle, Kuemar, Michelle, Carl, Andre, Montee, Treva, Sonjia, Angel and special brother Oleatha. Also, special niece, Chasity and special nephews Lil Chaz and Loyal. Along with a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, great nieces, great nephews, cousins and many loved family friends.

Anyone who knew Rondale, knew his love for the Ohio State Buckeyes, boxing, and food, especially his TikTok recipes. He also enjoyed all Marvel and DC Comics, loved any type of movies, and jammed to any type of music. Rondale never knew a stranger and would do anything he could to help anyone in need. He had a pure heart of gold with the most beautiful soul. He loved everyone around him, especially his family, but most of all, he loved his children and grandchildren. He always had a smile when talking about his grandchildren that would light up the world. Rondale always had a story of somewhere he had been, what he seen and done, and where he wanted to go and the things he wanted to do. Even with the battles that arose on his path, his strength and amount of fight never dulled and not once did he let his beautiful smile fade. As a man filled with so much love, he would never want those he cared about to cry in pain and grief, but to celebrate and treasure the life he lived and keep the best memories alive. His soul is now the sun in our skies, the shine in our stars, and the love in our hearts. We will hold him in our hearts until the day we can hold him again in heaven.
