Dad, I just want to say thank you for everything that you have done. Always there for whoever needed you. Thank you for all the life lessons that you shared with me. I will miss our talks, laughs, funny text messages, but most of all our hugs. Thank you for raising me to be the man I am today. I will continue to make you proud. Al love you and I will see you again.

Obituary

Hozie Hall, Jr., age 62 entered his heavenly room on November 18, 2022.

Hozie was employed at the Federal Black Lung Program for over 25 years. He was a man of his word and did not hold back if he had an opinion. He loved working with his hands, taking something old and giving it new life with a purpose.

Hozie was strong in his beliefs and convictions and stayed steady to his word. His love for music is the reason why he began to D-jay many years.

Hozie's greatest love was God first, his earthly father and his two most precious gifts on this earth, his wonderful sons.

Hozie is preceded in death by his loving parents, Hozie Hall Sr., and Edna (Butler) Hall; sister, Sheila Hall; brother, Anthony Kent.

He leaves to cherish his memories his sons, Joshua Benson Hall, Pastor Michael (Dee) Story; grandchildren, Dalton Story and Markel Story all of Arkansas; brother, Rodney Kent; sister, Linda Bridges; and most beloved friend, Kim Wilder as well as a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

OF Faith

We little knew the day that
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories.
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you
You are always by our side.

Our family chain is broken
and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us one by one
the chain will link again.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free.

Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love
that we once shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey
that we must all take
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows
in doing good deeds
Miss me, but let go.
