

CELEBRATING
THE LIFE OF

Acknowledgement

*Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair. Perhaps you sent those beautiful flowers that we see sitting here.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, as any friend could say. Perhaps you were not there at all, just prayed for us today. Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much for whatever your part.*

Don't

*Don't spend too much time in mourning. Tears are for the sad.
I left to be with Jesus, and this should make you glad.*

*Don't waste your hours grieving. No need to feel distress.
I was tired of life's frustrations and had to get some rest.*

*Don't vex yourself with questions or try to reason why.
Life here for me was ended; it came my time to die.*

*Don't lose the love I gave you; feed it with your care.
Grow it with devotion and spread it everywhere.*

*Don't fret because my leaving came in such a way.
We'll have another meeting, in God's Eternal Day!*

The Obituary

Gwendolyn J. Whitner-Clemons of Mansfield, OH, passed away on April 19, 2021 at home. Mrs. Clemons was born on January 27, 1961 in Cleveland, OH to the Late Freddie Cheatham and the Late Mary Lucas. She lived in Mansfield most of her life.

Gwen worked at Wedgewood Estates as a Caregiver for many years until she was unable to continue. She enjoyed playing Bingo, cookouts, and spending time with family. She was also a faithful member of Kingdom Grace Fellowship Church where she enhanced the Worship experience by playing the tambourine. In 2007 she was appointed to coordinate the ministry outreach program known as "Love Abundantly" to provide monthly meals to those who desired to come. Although her health prevented her from continuing in that leadership position, she still served as a helper whenever she could.

Sister Gwen became Pastor Wanda Sprinkle's armor bearer in 2012 and served willingly in that capacity. She also participated by reading Scripture and welcoming visitors whenever asked to do so. She had a mother's heart and cherished her children and grandchildren. They were the love of her life.

She leaves to cherish her memory her loving husband, Ernest "Skip" Clemons, one daughter, Nekita Whitner of Mansfield, OH; three sons, Roderick Johnson of Mansfield, OH, Philip Clemons of Columbus, OH, and Andrew Clemons of Marion, OH; one sister Melanie (Matthew) Witt of Castalia, OH, four brothers, Eafrom (Ingrid) Cheatham, and Douglas Miller of Ashland, OH; Christopher Cheatham of Florida and Derrick Miller of Mansfield, OH; two brothers-in-law Larry and Cornell "Tootie" Clemons; one sister-in-law Faye Clemons, eight grandchildren: Kya, Iyannah, Isreal, SuNyce, Jaila, Kobi, Cambrie, Cain, as well as a special Aunt Minnie Norris of Columbus, OH.

Gwen is preceded in death by her parents and Sister Doralene Cheatham-Howard a; four nephews Duriel Howard, Christopher Cheatham, Jr., Zakier and Zian Clemons; and one granddaughter Penelope Clemons.
