Baby Footprints

These are my tiny footprints,
so perfect and so small,
These tiny footprints never touched the ground at all.
Not one tiny footprint,
for now I have wings...
These tiny footprints were meant for other things.

You will hear my tiny footprints
in the patter of the rain, Gentle drops like angel tears
of joy and not from pain.
You will see my tiny footprint in each butterfly's graceful dance...
I will let you know I'm with you,
if you just give me a chance.

Even though I'm gone right now,
We will never be apart,
Because I have left my tiny footprints safe within your heart.

In Loving Memory Of

A memorial card for Ke'onnie Amor Small. The background is pink with a large pink bow at the top and a pink hibiscus flower on the right. The card features two photographs: a baby in a pink hat and a young girl with her hair in two buns. A pink teddy bear is positioned between the photos. The name 'Ke'onnie Amor SMALL' is written in a decorative font. Below the name, the service information is provided.

The Obituary

Ke'onnie Amor Small was born to Keaira J. Sullens and Ejaun Curtis Small on October 5, 2020. Onnie, as she was affectionately nicknamed, was the bright light wherever she was. Her smile and laughter were infectious. The twinkle in her eyes were a testament to her joyful nature. Her favorite toy was JJ and Minnie Mouse. Her feistiness and playfulness were all joy.

Though Onnie was just a toddler, her personality was in full bloom, always camera ready. She possessed the promise of being a force to be reckoned with. Ke'onnie was a daddy's girl and their favorite place to eat was Golden Corral.

Ke'onnie is preceded in death by grandparents, Patricia Hickman and Charles Baker; great grandparents, Kenneth and Doris Byrd; and aunt, Terry Byrd.

Ke'onnie leaves to cherish her memory, mother, Keaira; father, Ejuan; brother, Ke'vonn Sullens; grandmother, Iriss Fields; great grandparents, Kimberly Byrd and Ronnie Robinson; and a host of uncles, aunts, and cousins.
