

Acknowledgement

The Davis family would like everyone who has called, sent messages to offer their condolences. As well as the abundance of surprise meals showing up at the house. The love that has been shown in this unspeakably difficult time, has gone a long way in our healing process. Our loved one meant and will always mean the world to us, so moving on with the life he would want us to live will always be a challenge.

We would like to thank all the staff at Grant Medical Center, Ohio Health, as well as all the Cancer Doctors who assisted him with his hard fight. Special Thank you to Terry Stimmel-McClung and Mrs. Vanessa Downey. Lastly, we would like to thank the Staff of Marlan Gary for the patience and compassion they have shown to us during this storm.

FOOTPRINTS

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the LORD.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you most you would leave me."

The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

Obituary

Mr. Chet L. Davis was born on September 18, 1945 to Deacon Haynes L. Davis and Deaconess Rosa L Davis. He transitioned to his Heavenly home on July 28, 2022 in Columbus, Ohio.

Chet was the 9th child of a family of eleven children, 9 boys and two girls. Both of Chet's parents and 8 siblings preceded him in death.

He was born in Banner Holler, WV in a lovely, sheltered valley of mountains and streams near Charleston, WV, where coal mining was considered "king." When coal mines closed, his parents relocated the family to Columbus, Ohio where his father found work on the railroad. At this time, Chet was a very young child, age 7. This is where Chet grew up and lived the remainder of his life. He attended Linmoor Jr. High, and Linden McKinley High School, where he excelled as a student. As a youth Chet was an avid Little League baseball and basketball player, winning many trophies. His most prized award was when he won the "Boy of the year" award. Chet was an avid Cleveland Brown fan as well as THE Ohio State Buckeyes.

He also loved to fish with his family. He had a beautiful singing voice. He was often the lead soloist in his church choir, Columbus Bible Way Church. As a young man, Chet travelled the United States with a three-man singing group, Camelot, as the opening act for Bill Doggett, an American Jazz and Blues pianist, and as backup singer to musical genius, Edwin Starr.

Chet had a long and successful career at Ohio Malleable Iron Co., Columbus, OH. For a few years Chet moved to Atlanta, GA as Vice President of Operations and Sales at Excel Janitorial Services, Inc, specializing in health care. Although very successful in this position, Chet eventually returned to his hometown.

He was married for 48 years to his lovely wife Robbin Davis, who he leaves to mourn. Throughout Chet's long illness Robbin was at his side caring for him and loving him and at his hospital bedside when he transitioned to his heavenly home. This is a true example of the Biblical scripture "until death do us part!" Romans 7:2-3.

Chet was the father of four amazing children, two girls and two boys: Lisa Davis, Chet Jr. (Ana), Nikki Davis, Anthony (Elizabeth) of Noblesville, IN, stepdaughter, Trisha Sias, and a wonderful legacy of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Chet also had many nieces and nephews as well as a long-time best friend, JD Downey. Chet loved his puppies as well. He also leaves to mourn him, his sister, Doris Webster (Thomas) of Atlanta, GA, brother Ron Davis of Dallas, TX, brother in law, Paul Stimmel (Lynda) of Dayton, OH and sister in law, Terry McClung (David) of Buckeye Lake, OH.
