Miss me But let me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free

Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me - but let me go

For this is a journey that we must all take
And each must go alone
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home

When you are lonely, and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me - but let me go

Obituary

Diane (Betty) Goss (Robinson) daughter of Jesse T. Robinson and Odessa Robinson (Glover) was born June 28, 1930. She was next to the youngest of eleven children.

She transitioned from this life Saturday, January 21, 2023 with her son Craig D. Goss by her side.

Diane grew up in Columbus, Ohio. She attended Columbus City Schools. She retired from Catholic Social Services at the age of 65.

She had a great and loving spirit. She loved being a grandma and she was amazed at the fact she was able to meet and spend time with her great grandchildren. She obtained a peaceful and quiet life she always desired.

She leaves to cherish her memory sons; Kevin L Goss, Craig D. Goss and daughter; Karen M. Brantley (Goss). Grandchildren; Adam Gunnell, Carmen Goss, Christina Goss, Kristen Goss, Kevin Coleman, Christopher Coleman, Kelly Coleman, Charlene Goss, Nikkia Burroughs, Christian Goss, Corey Goss, Kyle Goss, Keith Goss, Kiara Goss, and many relatives not mentioned.
