I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

The Obituary

Barbara Barrett was born June 19, 1945 to the late Ralph and Fannie Mae Godhigh Ragland in the city of Rome and state of Georgia. Barbara transitioned to be with the Lord on October 6, 2022.

Barbara was educated in a public school in Rome, Georgia graduating in 1963. Barbara was baptized at an early age and continued to attend church from time to time as an adult. Her services to the Lord when she was active in church was as an usher. Barbara was a die-hard Cleveland Browns fan.

Barbara was preceded in death by her father, Ralph; mother, Fannie Mae; two brothers, Russell Ragland and Charles Ragland; four sisters, Florence Pace, Maybelle Johnson, Rena Booker, and Linda Hoskins.

Barbara leaves to cherish her memory, two sisters, Lillie Louise Ragland and Diana Ragland Covington; and a host of nieces, nephews, friends, and acquaintances.

Barbara will be forever missed by all those who had the privilege of knowing and loving him.

*I am the resurrection and the life: He that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live.
And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.*
