The Broken Chain

*We little knew that morning
That God would call your name
In life we loved you dearly
In death we do the same*

*It broke our hearts to lose you
You did not go alone
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home*

*You left us beautiful memories
Your love is still our guide
And although we cannot see you
You're always by our side*

*Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same
But as God calls us one by one
The chain will link again*

Obituary

Roy Lee Cain, Jr. was born December 28, 1968 to Betty and Roy Cain, Sr. Roy Lee Cain, Jr. is also affectionately known as "Peter", sadly departed this life on May 24, 2021.

Roy graduated from Linden McKinley High School in the class of 1988. Following graduation, he served with the U.S. Navy.

Roy was a dedicated and hard-working employee for McDonald's for many years until his illness. Roy enjoyed going to the movies, watching baseball, and listening to music. Roy also loved eating Sunday dinners with his family. Roy touched the lives of many people with a smile.

Roy was preceded in death by his grandparents, Watson and Lottie Golden, and Roosevelt and Velma Cain.

Roy will forever be remembered by his parents, Betty and Roy Cain, Sr.; devoted brother, Barry (Melanie) Cain Golden; loving sister, Christine (Tony) McKrimmon; three nephews; two nieces; aunts, Peggy McKnight of Beloit, Wisconsin, Bertha Cain of Arkansas, and Patricia McGhee of Columbus, Ohio; uncles, Laverne Golden of Beloit, Wisconsin, Leonard Cain, Amos Cain, and Albert Cain, all of Columbus, Ohio; close family friend, Teresa Speight; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Roy missed by all the people who knew him.

God's Garden

God looked around the garden,

And found an empty space.

He looked down upon the earth,

And saw your tired face.

He put His arms around you,

And lifted you to rest.

God's garden must be beautiful,

For He only takes the best.

He knew that you were weary

And He knew you were in pain,

He knew that you would never be well on earth again.

He saw the roads were getting rough,

The hills were hard to climb.

So, He closed your weary eyelids,

And whispered peace be thine.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free!*

*Miss me a little, but not for long,
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared,
Miss me but let me go!*

*For this a journey we all must take,
And each must go alone;
It's all a part of the master's plan
A step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
Miss me, but let me go.*
