Missing You Always

*You never said "I'm leaving"
You never said "Goodbye"
You were gone before we knew
And only God knows why.*

*In life I loved you dearly
In death I love you still
In my heart I hold a place
That only you can fill*

*It broke my heart to lose you
But you didn't go alone
A part of me went with you
The day God took you Home.*

Our beloved mother, Deborah R. Hoy, age 63 passed away Sunday, March 7th, 2021.

A devoted Christian, mother, sister and friend, Mrs. Hoy was a member of God's Grace Deliverance Apostolic Faith Church. Deborah enjoyed her family, friends, home, reading and listening to music. In her zenith, she relished cooking, entertaining, ensuring all around her were as comfortable as possible and was an unparalleled hostess. She never knew a stranger without befriending them. Her infectious smile and laughter were felt by all who knew her. She loved talking on the phone, particularly with her closest family members and dearest friends. Mrs. Hoy was especially proud of her two children, Stephanie and Bell having taken great pride in their accomplishments as well as her mothering them both.

Deborah was born on October 4, 1957 in Cleveland, OH to Naomi Easley and Franklin Loper. She lived in Zion, Illinois from grade school to 1984 before relocating to Columbus, OH. Mrs. Hoy and Bell Hoy, Jr. were married from 1982 to 2005 and share two children.

Deborah was preceded in death by her mother, Naomi Easley and father Franklin Loper. To cherish her memory, Deborah leaves her daughter, Stephanie Hoy of Pittsburgh, PA and son, Bell Hoy, III of Grandview, OH; her brothers Franklin Loper of Waukegan, IL, Nathaniel (Lisa) Easley of Gahanna, OH, Eric (Annette) Easley of Worthington, OH and sister, Amy Bell (Jeffrey) of Columbus, OH; a host of nieces and nephews as well as dear friends, and other relatives whom she loved.
