

Acknowledgement

The family of Henry "Butch" Sims, Jr., is extremely grateful for all the kindness shown during this difficult time. Whether you sent a card, flowers, offered comforting words, lent a shoulder, or just kept us in your thoughts, every deed of kindness was sincerely appreciated. May God richly bless each of you!

Miss me But let me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free

Miss me a little - but not too long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me - but let me go

For this is a journey that we must all take
And each must go alone
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home

When you are lonely, and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me - but let me go

He was preceded in death by his parents. He was the fourth child from this union.

He leaves to celebrate his memory, children; Henry (Radika) Sims III and Shiree E. Henry accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at the Corinthian Missionary Baptist Church by Dr. F.L. Jordan. He grew up in the church participating in the youth choir, ushering, and playing the drums. He helped do the construction and brick work on the church building renovated on East Main Street prior to the church moving to its current location. Henry graduated from Marion Franklin where he played baseball and excelled in music by playing the drums. He and friends in high school formed the group called the "Suspicious Can Openers", winning the city-wide talent hunt.

They became the backup band for singer "Timmy Willis", upon graduation. He started his career working for the post office then becoming a master brick mason. He retired from the National and Bricklayers local 55 Union.

After he retired, he moved in to assist as a caregiver for his mother for 3 years. He was an avid Ohio State Buckeye fan. His favorite activities were watching the stories (soap opera), sports, movies, playing cards, and spending time with his family.
