The Obituary

Leon E. Chisolm was born in Birmingham, Alabama, on November 3, 1936. His wife was Willie Lois Chisolm, who is deceased. He went to Parker High School in Alabama. He was a member of the Military and was an Air Force Police Officer. He was at Lockbourne Airforce, and he also knew karate & judo. He had a dog named Malfunction. He was a great pool player and bowler. He also played baseball and was a coach for the Linden Eagles. He literally taught my sister and I how to shoot pool. When we were children, he made sure that we could change clothes at any time of the day. No matter what, we were always dressed and clean and he kept my mom, Lois Chisolm, in the best of clothes.

He leaves behind four children, Gerald Chisolm, Tanya Chisolm, Desiree Chisolm and Valerie Chisolm; four grandchildren, Nichel Chisolm, Bille Burroughs Jr., Shammikka Chisolm and Preston Chisolm, five great grandchildren; Janiya Singleton, J'Leon Walker, Bently Burroughs, Kayton Chisolm and Parker Chisolm, several nephews, nieces, and a great amount of friends and family.

During your journey on your final flight home.

White wings will carry you and you will be flown.

To the pearly gates of Heaven, where they will usher you in.

To the feet of your Lord, your Saviour, and your friend.

He will hold you in his arms and the angels will sing.

As another one of His children is delivered by white wings.

I Love You Daddy Kins

Weep not for me though I have gone

Into that gentle night

Grieve if you will, but not for long

Upon my soul's sweet flight

I am at peace, my soul's at rest

There is no need for tears

For with your love I was so blessed

For all those many years

There is no pain, I suffer not

The fear is now all gone

Put now these things out of your thoughts

In your memory, I live on

Remember not my fight for breath

Remember not the strife

Please do not dwell upon my death

But celebrate my life
