until we meet again

.....
WE THINK ABOUT YOU ALWAYS,
WE TALK ABOUT YOU STILL,
YOU HAVE NEVER BEEN FORGOTTEN,
AND YOU NEVER WILL.
WE HOLD YOU CLOSE WITHIN OUR HEARTS
AND THERE YOU WILL REMAIN,
TO WALK AND GUIDE US THROUGH OUR LIVES,
UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN.

Obituary

Barbara J. Pankey, age 61. Sunrise August 2, 1961 and Sunset April 5, 2023.

Barbara J. Pankey lived a life rooted in faith, love, family, friendship, hope, and laughter, reflected in her constant smile. She was fulfilled by making others happy, which she demonstrated through extending good deeds abundantly. She would help anyone in need the best she could, even if it meant she had to go without. That was Barbara J, a heart of pure gold. Barbara J will be missed not because of what she said, but how she made others feel.

Barbara J was the eldest daughter and proud homemaker, instilling into her four children, grandchildren, and others, good morals, values, charity, and character that she taught through being an example. She was intelligent, artistic, creative, and full of wisdom. Barbara J enjoyed arts and crafts and do-it-yourself projects. Her favorite room was the kitchen, where she loved to cook, bake, and whip together her glazes, sauces, and recipes.

She adored the milestones of her children and grandchildren and life celebrations with family and friends. Barbara J will be remembered and missed always. Barbara J began her journey with God through fellowship and friendships at community churches and made the Lord Jesus Christ's Church her church home. Through fellowship, she guided others to seek their relationship with God. If you ask anyone to describe Barbara, they would say she was a good woman. She had built-in characteristics of a virtuous woman, worth far more than rubies (Proverbs 31).

Barbara J was preceded in death by her father; Bobby Turner, children's father; Harvey Lamar Frazier, maternal grandparents; Elijah and Ruth Thomas, brother; Steven Turner (Stevie), sister; Evelyn Ross (Abby), aunt; Betty Butler, nephews; Dayvon Turner, Eugene Patterson, and Antonyo Worthy.

She leaves to cherish her memory children; Harvey Turner (Audrea), Yvonne Banks (Dashun), Roshanna Turner, and Anthony Turner (Tiffany), mother; Yvonne Turner, brother; Arthur Thomas (Charlene), sister; Sandra Turner, grandsons; Dashun Banks Jr., Harvey Turner Jr., Qur'an Banks, Israel Banks, Manassah Turner, Closure Snell Jr., and Knowledge Banks, granddaughters; Justice Turner, Lethia Simmons, Matya Turner, Olivia Turner, Gisele Jones, Erianna Jordan, Chaanah Turner, Presence Turner, Chevayah Turner, Shemiyah Turner, and Temperance Turner, special niece; Loyalty White, close friends; Natasha Cleveland and James Stokes, ex-husband; Anthony D. Pankey, and a host of aunts, nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and friends.
