Throughout his life, Drew was blessed to have the experience of living in Detroit, Michigan and Atlanta, Georgia and Las Vegas, Nevada with various family members. Drew lived in this world on his own terms, doing what he wanted to do and not asking anyone for anything.

Throughout his life, no matter the setting, Drew was a peaceful person who was known to be a 'peacemaker' and a mediator. In most recent years, he was a leader to those he was surrounded by.

The one thing Drew was most proud of, about his life, was being a firefighter. He was the best firefighter on his team. He was the first to get to the top when hiking up mountains with his gear to put out fires. He spoke highly of how great a job he had done.

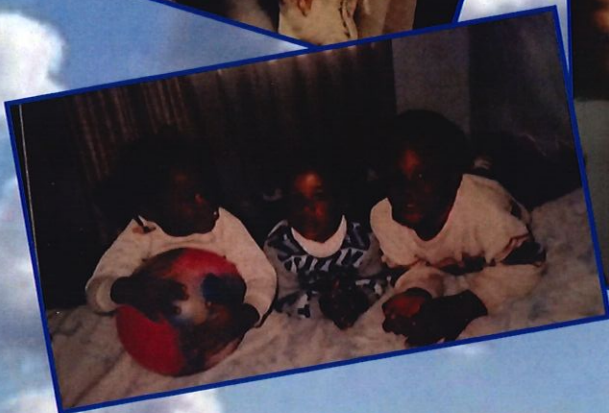

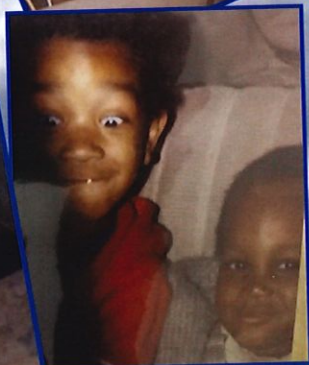

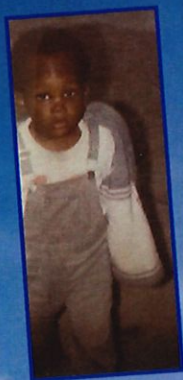

He did not express himself verbally very often, but he really loved his family and showed it through his actions.. He was never a gossip or backbiter and avoided getting entangled in family feuds. Overall, and ironically, though Drew had so many people around him in his life, Drew was known to be a loner; a true introvert.

Through an unfortunate accident, Drew's life was cut short. Our beloved son, brother, nephew, cousin, uncle and friend was taken home to be with the Lord. Drew was preceded in death by Charles Etta Dawkins (maternal grandmother), Mary Alice Marshall (paternal grandmother), Lawyer Dawkins, Jr. (maternal grand-father).

Drew is survived by his father Ronald E. Nesbit, Sr.; loving mother, Yolanda R. Stringfellow (Dawkins); Earl Stringfellow (step-father); Ronald E. Nesbit, II (brother); Nefertiti Nesbit (sister); Niya R. Wright (niece); Loving Aunts—Antoinette Dawkins; Patricia A. Banks (Glen, Sr.); Katrina A. Dawkins; Latonia M. Addison; Deanna L. 2 Corinthians 5:1

For we know that if the earthly tent we live in is destroyed, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

Luke 23:, 39- 43

39 One of the criminals who were hanged railed at him, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us!" 40 But the other rebuked him, saying, "Do you not fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation?" 41 And we indeed justly; for we are receiving the due reward of our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong." 42 And he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." 43 And he said to him, "Truly, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."
