Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room
Why cry for a soul set free
Miss me a little- but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that we once shared
Miss me- but let me go
For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone
Its all a part of the master plan
A step on the toad to home
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds
Miss me- But let me go!

The Obituary

Phyllis Jean Turner-Scales was born on July 24, 1938 to Sterling and Lorraine Turner in Gilliam, West Virginia. She was their first daughter and the older sister of Beverly.

Phyllis is the mother of two sons, Edward Michael Turner and James Sterling Brown. Phyllis was a graduate of Elkhorn High School in West Virginia. Shortly after High School, she moved with her family to Columbus, Ohio where she attended and graduated from Cosmetology School. Later in life, Phyllis married Purnette Scales.

Phyllis like to crochet, sew, cook and take care of her grandchildren. She was most happy when she could feed or take care of people and we can't ever forget how much she liked to dance! Music or not, she would create her own beats to dance to. Phyllis worked many years with and retired from The Franklin County Welfare Dept. While there, she was known to have amazing short-hand and typing skills.

Phyllis is proceeded in death by her Father, Sterling Turner and Mother, Lorraine Turner.

She is survived by her two sons, Edward Michael (Tina) Turner and James Sterling Brown; her only sister, Beverly Wallace; her grandchildren, Krissi (Mia & Gigi) Kayla, Mychal, Christopher, Aubrey, Andre, Sydney, Stacy, Ashleigh, Sean and Curtis; a host of great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.
