

Acknowledgement

The family of Raejean Harris would like to express our heartfelt gratitude for your condolences and sympathy during this difficult time. We have all felt your thoughts and prayers following the death of our beloved mom, grandma, aunt, cousin, and beloved friend. Raejean and we appreciate every one of them.

Standing last but not alone. The journey was a tough one and now she's gone. The trials and struggles have come to an end. We only wish now what could have been.

Gone from us. Free from pain. There were days when she drove us insane, Our days ahead will never be the same. Those days have ended, no one can hold blame.

Standing last, the very last sibling to go. Leave the many people who loved her so. Worried with thoughts of doing more. Thinking that it would've not been a chore.

Standing last, with a caring heart, Her love ran deep, could never depart. Giving freely, she always did. Acted no different than when she was a kid.

We'll miss her in every way that counts. In our hearts, memories stays and mounts.

So many ways. Had plenty of class. Just taking her place as standing last. The challenges she faced was hard and long, she tried to keep up and remain strong. Her body was tired, she had to let go, to a pain free peaceful place, wouldn't you know.

We mourn you today and will miss you too. Always know that we loved you. Always in our heart, memories we'll share. Thinking that you should be here.

Still standing last to answer the call, God loved you most of all.

Rest easy Raejean, you are pain free.
Things went the way God wanted them to be.

To Aunt Sug: I was doing everything I could to be there and wish I could have. I love you and until I see you again, rest peacefully.

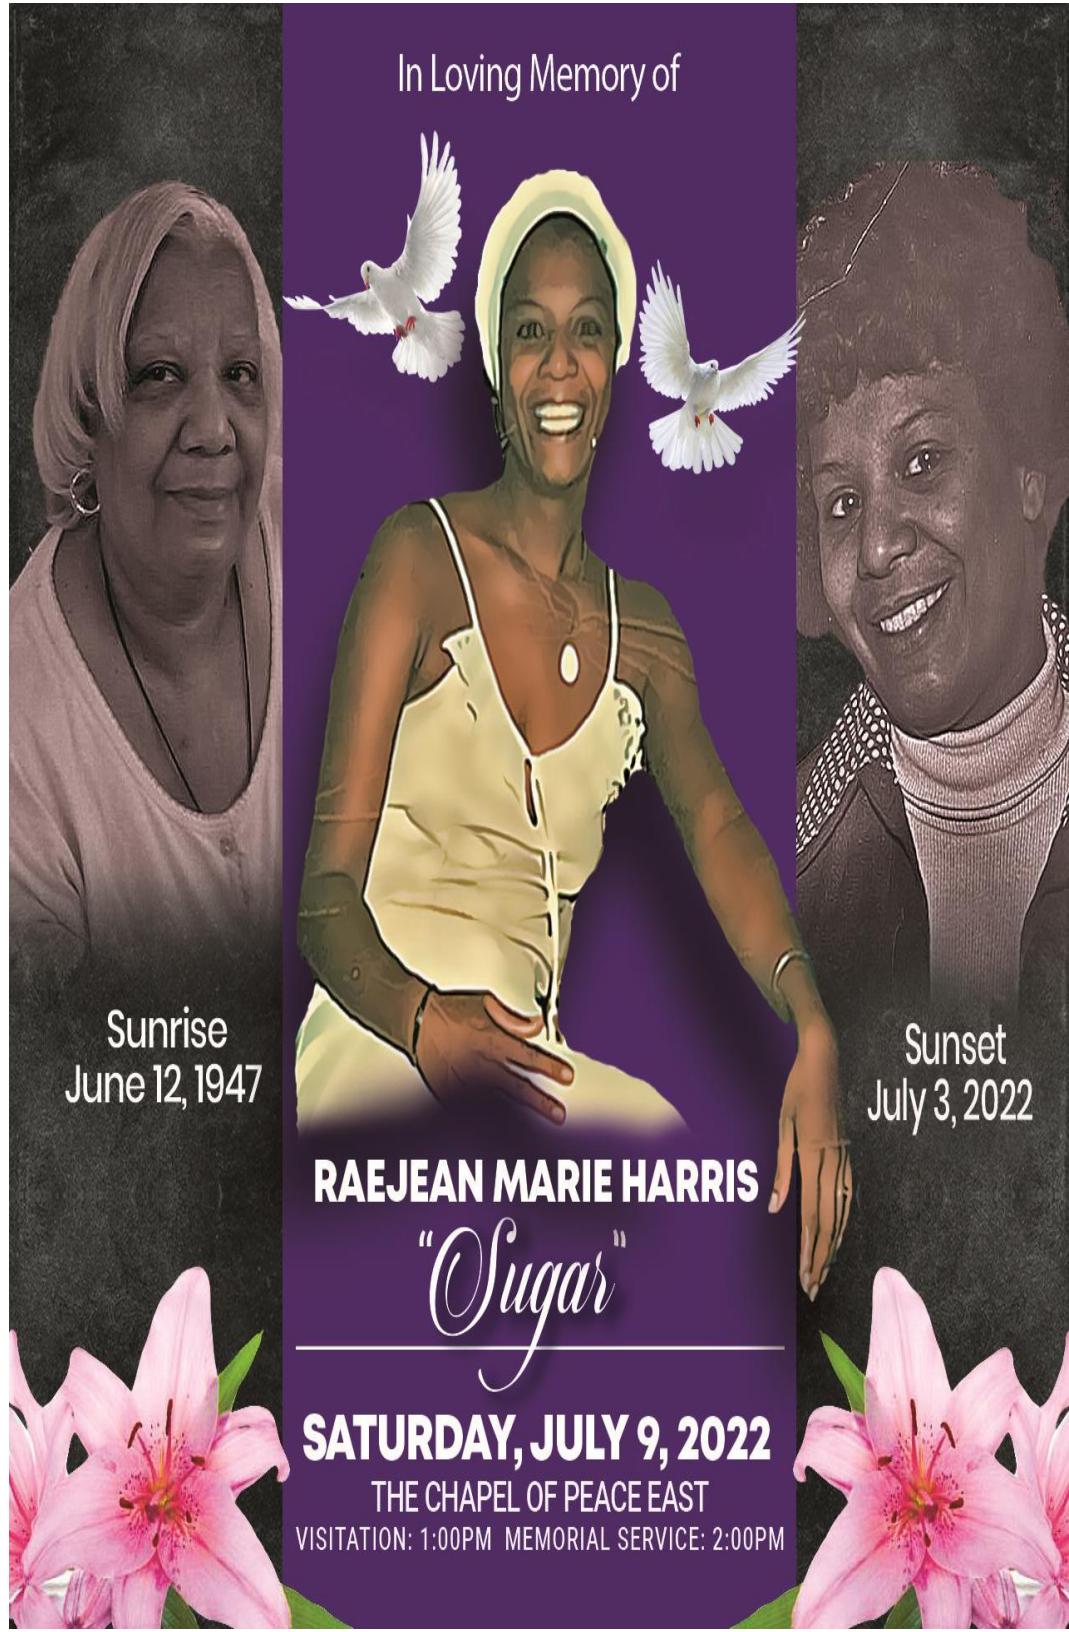

-Your nephew, Donald Thomas

Obituary

Raejean Marie Harris, affectionately known as Sugar, was born June 12, 1947, to James and Helen Harris in Winona, West Virginia.

She married the late Vincent Beasley in 1966 and later welcomed their only son, Jeffrey. Later in 1974, she moved to Columbus, Ohio where she resided for the rest of her natural life.

Raejean was an avid bingo player who could play your cards and hers and the person next to her. She was the only person who could drive you absolutely insane while you still did whatever it was, she was asking you to do.

Raejean was a loving and caring person whose love ran so deep, that she would give you the shirt off her back if you liked it. Raejean was the light and the spark in a room who knew just how to light up a room with fire and laughter. She was someone who had never met a stranger and once you met her, you automatically loved her.

Raejean peacefully transitioned from this life on July 3, 2022, where she is preceded in death by her parents; James William Harris and Helen Beatrice Harris.

She is survived by her only beloved son; Jeffrey Beasley, special niece; Anita Allen, grandchildren; Chacere Ellison (D'veon) and Sierra Shepard (Raheem), best friend; Donna Wiley and a host of great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, cousins, great-nieces, great-nephews, family and friends.

I am the resurrection and the life: He that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live.

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.
