I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call;*

I turned my back and left it all.

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work and play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void.
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss;
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savoured much;
Good friends, good time, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now,
He set me free*

Obituary

Dnitra Ruth Morant, mother, sister, aunt, and friend of many, left this world February 11, 2023 due to pancreatic cancer.

Born April 9, 1963, in Mansfield, Ohio to Charlie and Margaret Morant, Dnitra, who was called "Neet" by family and close friends, lived in Mansfield most of her life and spent her final months with her daughter Margaret and son-in-law Jerrod ("rod rod") Wade. She graduated from Malabar High School in 1982 and spent summers working at Richland Newhope Industries, where she acquired the nickname "Sunshine", and met mentors Tammy Bowers and Jerry Zigler, who became dear friends and extended family.

Dnitra was a lifelong member of Maddox Memorial Church of God in Christ (formerly known as Temple of Faith) and especially enjoyed hearing the choir sing. She lived a life of grace and every person that knew her witnessed the power of Jesus Christ in her life. She lived a servant's life and modeled a servant's heart. She showed her love of people with hugs and smiles and enjoyed long conversations with close friends, Annette Favors, Patricia Ford, Reb Sewell, and Brenda Scott. They shared laughter and tears as she pointed them all to Jesus.

She loved shopping, nature walks, and attending concerts and dances with Tammy. She loved cookouts and entertaining others with her humor. Even in her final days she remained feisty and kept those around her on their toes.

Dnitra is survived by daughter; Margaret Rebekah (Jarrod) of Ann Arbor, Michigan, brothers; Charles (Allicin) of Mansfield, Ohio, Derrick (Tonee) of Columbus, Ohio, David (Annette) of Gambrills, Maryland, sister; Rachel Dumas of San Antonio, Texas, aunt; Lillie Ruth Garner of Kansas City, Kansas and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, brother; Michael, grandparents; Rachel Canada, Leon and Georgianne Morant, uncles; Leon, Robert, Eddie Frank, and John, aunt; Stella Mae Harris, great aunts; Ruth Robinson and Lovie Murphy, nephew; Sharrod Dumas and godmother; Rebecca Green.

Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God, Believe also in me. My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you.
