Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in a gloom-filled room - why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little - but not too long and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that we once shared - Miss me but let me go.

*For this is a journey that we all must take and each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's Plan - a step on the road to home.*

When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know and bury your sorrows in doing good deeds. Miss me but let me go.

Obituary

Mildred Lacina Janet Hairston was born on September 12, 1943, in Maybeury, West Virginia to the union of Samuel Henry and Iown (Cofer) Hairston. She transitioned peacefully from this life at The Ohio State University Hospital on Sunday, February 19, 2023, at the age of 79.

Mildred was baptized, at an early age, at Mariah Baptist Church, in Maybeury, West Virginia.

She was employed by Owens Illinois (later known as Techneglas) and retired from her position after 32 years of faithful service. She enjoyed playing cards, having fun, and loved being with her family.

Mildred was preceded in death by her parents, and siblings; Freda Hairston, George Hairston, Velma Mae Bushner, and Garland Hairston Sr.

She leaves to cherish her memory, son; Johnny L. Hairston Sr. (Rochelle), daughter; Mechelle E. Hairston (John), sister; Diane Hairston Hughes and brother; McGlenard Hairston Sr., all of Columbus, Ohio, eight grandchildren; Tiffany Smith, Johnny Hairston Jr., Taylor Hariston, Tiana Smith, Joante' Hairston, Taylor Hairston, Jaonne' Hairston, Javin Hairston, and D.J. Hairston, nine (9) great grandchildren, special friend; Louise Thomas, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Mildred will be sadly missed by everyone who knew and loved her.

Do not let your hearts be troubled. You believe in God, Believe also in me. My Father's house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you.
