The Obituary

Amara Jones entered the arms of Jesus on January 10, 2023. Amara was born to parents Steve and Camika Jones on July 25, 1998 in Columbus, Ohio.

She was a laughing, bright smiling, chocolate bundle of joy who brightened the whole room even at her birth. She touched everyone's life even at an early age.

She graduated from Licking Heights High School in 2016. She further pursued her education and became a nurse which was her passion. She worked at Friendship Village of Dublin Assisted Living, where she devoted herself to the care of her patients.

She was known to her family, friends and coworkers as an outgoing, bubbly, and energetic person. She was funny and kind to everyone she knew. Her favorite activities were spending time with her sister Taylor, watching movies, (favorite movie, all of the Jurassic Park series), enjoying good food, bowling and family gatherings.

Her lifelong dream was to be a nurse practitioner and if you spent any time around her, you knew she always put others before herself, not thinking twice about helping those in need.

Amara accepted the Lord as her personal savior at an early age. She was so excited about her new journey with the Lord, and serving God's people as a nurse for those who were hurting. Her heart went out to those no one else recognized.

Her laughter and presence filled the room, where ever she went. She was such a giving and caring person and known for taking care of each and every family member if anything was needed, responding to each member at a moment's notice, never hesitating or passing judgment. She said every life was important to God and mattered.

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free.

Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love
that we once shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey
that we must all take
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows
in doing good deeds
Miss me, but let go.

I am the resurrection and the life: He that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live.

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.

John 11:25-26

We little knew the day that
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories.
Your love is still our guide,
And though we cannot see you
You are always by our side.

Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same,
but as God calls us one by one
the chain will link again.
