Poem

*Farewell Lil, Brother, Sweet Brown Sparrow
Sweet Brown sparrow
Flirting around my barn nesting in the hayloft stirring up a storm hens are gone to roosting night is still and dead
sweet brown sparrow
come to my feather bed I' am not afraid of morning nor frightened by the night I am afraid of dying
And life's too short to fight sweet brown sparrow
it's safe here in the shade fly down and stay a while for soon the night will fade by morn the sun is rising our time will come no more sweet brown sparrow
fly in and close the door*

Obituary

Domanik was born March 15, 1982, to Larry Kendrick and Cloris Montgomery in Columbus Ohio. He was a wonderful father, brother, uncle, cousin, and friend. He attended Columbus City Schools and later received his G.E.D.

Domanik loved to cook, especially on the grill. Let him tell it, he was the best. Domanik was a people person who love everyone he met, and gave a helping hand wherever needed. He was one of a kind. To know him was to love him. You would never meet anyone as loyal and protective as him, especially when it came to family. One call and he was there. If he told you he loved you, he really meant it.
