

Acknowledgement

The Bean, Campbell, and Sparks Families acknowledge with deep appreciation and sincere gratitude the many expressions of love and kindness shown during our time of bereavement. Your acts of love and support have given us comfort and strength. Our prayer is that God will continue to bless and keep you in his care.

*Miss Me,
But Let Me Go*

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free.

Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love
that we once shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey that we must all take
And each must go alone,
It's all a part of the Master's plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows
in doing good deeds
Miss me, but let go.

Obituary

Joshua L. Bean, affectionately known as Josh, was born January 1, 2003.

Joshua attended Early College Academy High School and Sonshine Christian Academy in his younger years. Josh was a loving person with a beautiful smile and a wonderful sense of humor.

Josh was a devoted friend. He loved spending time with his family and friends. Josh loved music, sports, work, and cooking.

Josh was predeceased by his grandfather, Robert Lee Bean; grandmother, Kimberly Campbell; and aunt, Alisa Ann Bean.

Josh leaves to cherish his memory, mother, Tracy Bean; grandmother, Pearline Delores Bean; birth mother, Charmaine Campbell; birth father, Wayne Sparks; and a host of siblings, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. Joshua will truly be missed by all who know and loved him.
