

Acknowledgement

The family would like to express our heartfelt thanks and deep gratitude for the many acts of kindness shown to us during our time of bereavement. Your prayers and other expressions of love are sincerely appreciated.

The Journey of My Life

It was beautiful as long as it lasted, the journey of my life.
I have no regrets what so ever, save the pain I'll leave behind.
Those dear hearts who love and care ...
and the strings pulling at the heart and soul ...
The strong arms that held me up when my own strength let me down.
At every turning of my life, I came across good friends, friends who stood by me even when time raced by me.
Farewell, farewell my friend.
I smile and bid you goodbye.
No, shed no tears for I need them not. All I need is your smile.
If you feel sad do think of me for that's what I'll like.
When you live in the hearts of those you love remember then, you never die.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

The Obituary

Bridigitte Bondurant was born in Columbus, Ohio March 11, 1961 to Isaiah and Gertrude Bondurant. She was the fifth of six children.

She graduated from Walnut Ridge High School. She moved to California in the late seventies and spent blissful times in Hawaii for about a decade.

She was in a committed, loving relationship with William Prouty, whose heart will forever be shattered. Bridigitte was a Loving mother to her two daughters, Chardonnai and Raydience Bondurant Crummel. She was the wind beneath their wings and the music in their life. These three amigos knew for sure that they loved each other. Asking for prayers as these young ladies move forward in their lives making Bridigitte proud.

Bridigitte attended Seattle School of Massage and graduated with her massage certification. For over a decade, Bridigitte successfully owned her own massage business and used her healing hands to heal people in her community. With a quick smile, and no-nonsense boldness, she wore her crown impressively. She had a young soul that loved thrilling activities, scary movies, and celebrating holidays with her family.

On May 1, 2021, God gently whispered Bridigitte's name and called her home.

Bridigitte was preceded in death by her Father, Isaiah Bondurant, Brother, Craig Steven Bondurant; and Sister, Florence Jean Bondurant.

Bridigitte is survived by, loving Daughters, Chardonnai and Raydience Bondurant Crummel; Mother, Gertrude Bondurant; Sister, Marcy Wade (Terry); Brothers, Enoya Asubuhi Bondurant; Niece, Kisha Asubuhi Arketa; Nephews, Quincy Bondurant, Isaiah Bondurant III, Isaiah IV, Taiwan, Deion Bondurant and host of nieces, nephews, cousins; Special friends; Sherry McCullough, Shelly Kendrick, Lindy Montgomery, Jackie Lawrence, Louis Moore, friend from tri-city area and Julia Wong, friend from Hawaii, who are left to mourn her passing, cherish her memory and honor her sundown.

I am the resurrection and the life: He that believeth in me though he were dead yet shall he live.

And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.
