*I pray for those who love me
Whose hearts are kind and true
For the heaven that smiles above me
And awaits my spirit to
For all human hearts that bind me
For the task God has assigned me
For the bright hopes yet to find me
And for the good that I can do*

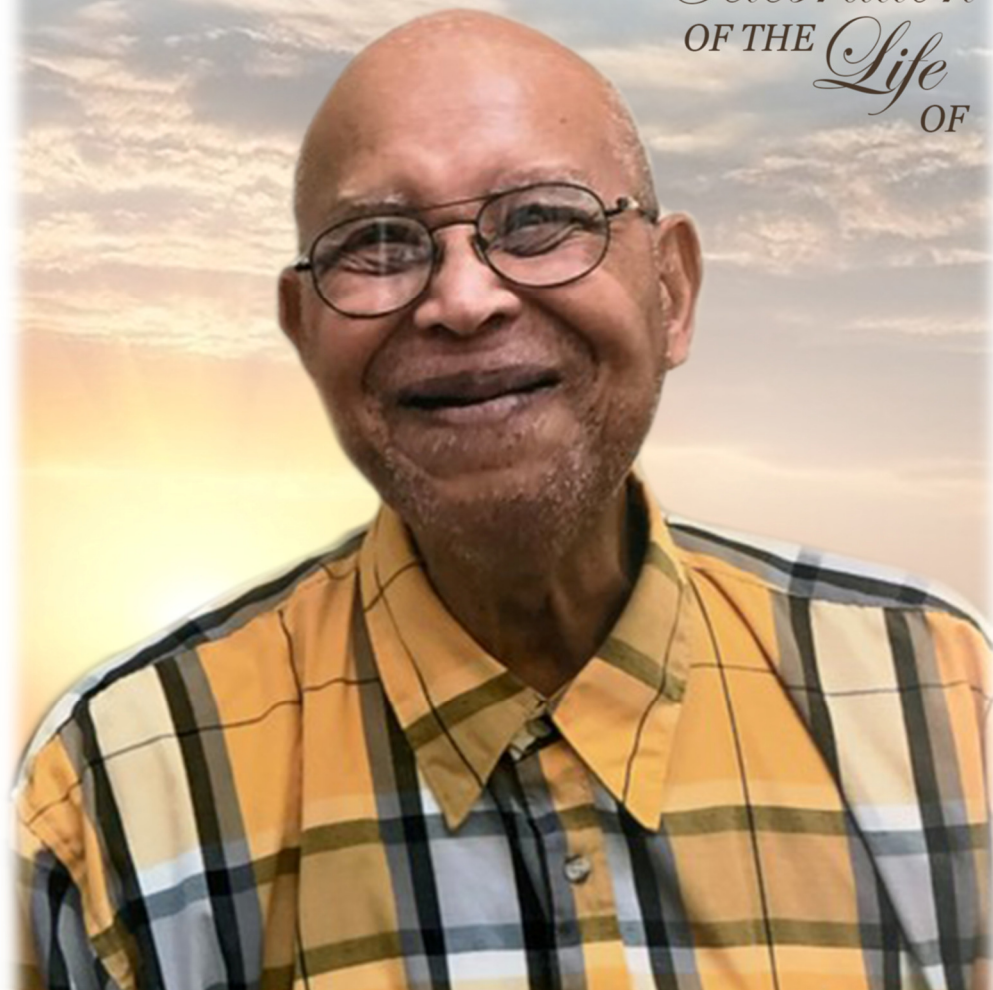

*I shall pass through this world but once
If therefore there be any kindness
I can show or any good things I can do
Let me do it now
Let not defer or neglect it
For I shall not pass this way again*

The Obituary

Elder James Moorehead, "Mitch" Pawp", Bro Moorehead and for me Dad was born on May 19, 1934 in Columbus, Ohio.

James Moorehead was a graduate of Central High School and served in the United States Navy. He was employed with DCSC for many years as well as the Columbus Public School System, a job he really loved.

Brother James Moorehead was a faithful member of Gospel Lighthouse Church and attended regularly until his health began to fail. He was licensed as a minister under the leadership of Dr. Jerry D. Fryar, Senior Pastor and was later ordained as an Elder after graduating from the Gospel Lighthouse School of Ministry.

Elder Moorehead loved Gospel Lighthouse Church and served in various capacities which included, the ministerial staff, a member of the Board of Trustees, briefly served as a Children's Church instructor and a Security Assistant with the Gospel Lighthouse School of Ministry for several years. He was always willing to serve wherever needed. He will be missed.

He was preceded in death by his Wife, Velora Moorehead and Parents, Sam and Helen Greenway.

Left to cherish his memories are daughter, Veedra Moorehead; sons, James Moorehead Jr., Reginold Moorehead (Priscilla); Brothers, Robert Moorehead, Joe (Ann) Moorehead, John (Ollie) Greenway; Granddaughters, Diamond Cox, Moriah Moorehead and Satin Anderson; Great-grandchildren, Ryan, Semaj, Maj'Justee, Diy'Nastee and Mikari' as well as a host of other Nieces, Nephews, other Relatives and Friends.

My Dad was loved by everyone. He was the best father and loving husband, but at the end he was my best friend. He will be missed.
