A Mother's Love Never Dies

A Mother's love never dies - it lives in her children, in their hearts and in their eyes.

A Mother's kind words will always ring - "So receive these words as I receive my wings."

A Mother's guidance will linger still as her children teach their children faith, determination and skill.

A Mother's mistakes will hopefully fade - because with each and every sunrise a new day is made.

A Mother's love will never die - it lives in her children, in their laughter and cries, in their hearts and in their eyes,

A Mother's love carries on.....

Obituary

Inez (Robinson) Swann was born to Channie Robinson on November 30, 1925, in Elkhorn, Maybeury, McDowell County, WVA. She moved to Columbus, Ohio when she was 3 years old. Inez attended Pilgrim Elementary, Champion Middle and East High Schools before moving back to West Virginia. Inez married the love of her life, Edward W. Swann in 1947. The first of seven children were born in 1951, the last was born in 1958. She was an avid, all sports fan and she played softball as a left-handed pitcher with the Women's Softball Team in Windsor Terrace, Columbus, Ohio 1959-1962. During her work career she was a highly sought after chef and later as a part time domestic worker while raising her children. Inez loved having fun which included gardening, dancing, cooking, cards, puzzles, entertaining and caring for her family. She was a great supporter of her grandchildren's activities, and even in these last 2 years attended many of her grand, great grand, and her great-great grand children's events!!

Inez was preceded in death by her husband Edward W. Swann, Sr., Mother Channie (Robinson) Early, Aunts Waxie Hill, Lois Mitchell, and Geneva Red; Uncle Skidmore Robinson; sons Edward, Jr. and Gary Michael, cousins Cleo (Mitchell) Person and Dorsey Mitchell. Inez leaves to cherish her memory her children Audrey (Swann) Person, Vivian (Swann) Medley, Mary Maxine, Jeffery (Elizabeth) and Donna (Swann) Fairfax, sixteen grandchildren, thirty-six great grandchildren and three great-great grandchildren plus her beloved Suga-Suga Serenity McLennan. One cousin Aaron Mitchell, special friend Ella Mae Hairston; Family (WVA.); many others who have come to know and love her.
